- Become a member of a group of book lovers supporting quality library services.

Why be a Friend of the Library?

Friends of the Library are community members like you with varied interests and a shared passion: they value and support the public library.

Active membership is open to individuals, families and organizations who want involvement in promoting the materials, services and programs of your local Public Library.

Friends of the Library Devote time and energy to ...

Encouraging community awareness

by sharing your passion for books, learning, and libraries in your community

Raising funds

through used book sales and other events to purchase equipment and materials not available through the regular library budget

Providing volunteer assistance for library programs, open houses, special events and public service projects

Thank you for your interest in the Friends.
